GEN

Hey Nick! Well I can't say what a pleasure it was making people nervous around us when we were playing "scarey Japanese people" with you. ☺ You are seriously one of the weirdest people I met + it makes me sad you are gonna scare college people now! Have an awesome summer and try to remain kind - Tripstick!
waaa!

Anna McKean

Nick,

Gov, Eng, and Wild bio were great!
We learned so much, (I am being sarcastic)
Mr. Hansen's class was enthralling!
I'll miss asking "why?" in Mrs. Carlisle, No wait, I won't miss at all!
Have fun this summer, Good luck at that college with
The really long name.

Nick

Latin was quite a bit of fun this year except Mrs. Johnson got a little bitchy at the end of the year. Have fun this summer.

Nick - Did you know I'm black?
I am. Thanks for all the good times in your car.

Your right hand

Nick-

You dirty little snitzel-loving punk!
I think it would be acceptable to say we had fun this year
what this year be like without pipe bombs / Don't forget not doing homework & hanging out in Key Club.
Good luck pal, see ya.

Kablaey,

NICK,
English has been fun drawing crazy pictures and listening to James annoy Mrs. Carlisle. For Vote for me when I run for President. I can't think of anything else to say, but always remember to clack and not work to hard.

Nick,
Hey there handsome,
I just thought since you were signing mine, I would sign yours. Bet you didn't expect it did you? Anyway's thanks for always being a cool senior that every once in a while took me out to lunch. You guys are a ton of fun to party with. I hope you keep in touch with me when you leave. I bet you will be very successful. I know you will. Always remember when the world hands you a lemon make some lemonaid. I hope that's my thought for the day.
Keep in touch. I hope you cool summer.

Spartans got the chance to show their spirit during Homecoming Week, which lasted from October 10-12. For three days, Sentinel's halls were packed with bell-bottoms, camouflage, and of course, purple and gold.

Seventies day was filled with disco fever, polyester, bell-bottoms, love beads, and big afros.

The week ended with Spirit Day. Masses of purple and gold breezed through the halls. There's no better way to show your Spartan pride! The same night, Sentinel fans filled the stands to root for the Spartans at the Homecoming football game.

Along with dressing up for Spirit Week, Key Club members put together a car bash. The fundraiser only cost a small amount of change and it was a great way to relieve frustrations.

Sophomores Memri Rollins and Aven Krempel jumped for joy when Sentinel scored a touchdown at the Homecoming game.

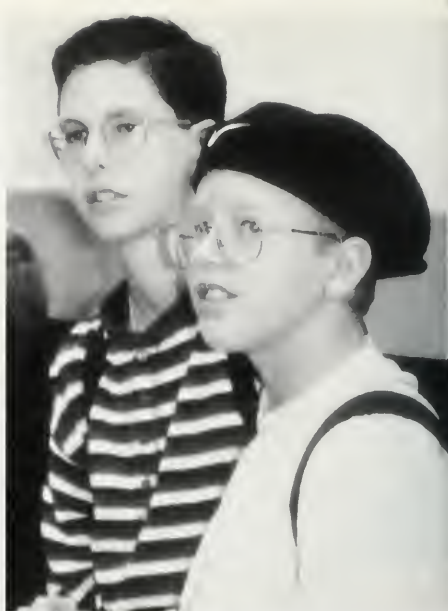

The freshmen crowd gets into the Band's half-time show by getting up and getting down.

The Joker of the party - Sophomore Mike Marceau shows everyone that he knows how to have a little fun.

Freshmen Colby Jones and Aaron Hamma stare intently at the stage during an all-school assembly.

Amy Allen, senior, takes time out for a little rest once everyone has left the gym.

Sophomores (clockwise) Holly Burton, Jamie Disney, Nicole Cuny, Stephanie Vontersch, and Shannon Ryan have a relaxing facial.

Sophomore Mike Visser, a Journalism 1 student, helped DJ on 94.9's Morning Show with Tom and Vicki. Visser was picked from a group of J1 students who submitted demo tapes.

WHAT WE DO IN OUR SPARE TIME:

"I hang out with my friends, go to my piano lessons and every once in a great while I work out at the Y."

Junior Amanda Moffett

"I love sleeping in and spending time with my friends."

Senior Colleen Williams

"I go on the Internet most of the time and hang out with my friends."

Sophomore Sean Ives

"Swimming, playing music, drawing, stuff like that."

Freshman Paul Copley

Homecoming

Royalty 1996

"What I got from this experience is that I met some new friends and found out that there are people that care about me," said Freshman Prince Matt Tucker. Homecoming is a time for a school to unite and show their spirit. It is also a time for the students to collectively choose the people they want to represent them. Homecoming Queen, Cara Cocchiarella said, "I think that overall Homecoming went really well. The whole school showed a lot of spirit throughout the week which made being part of Homecoming Royalty a very positive experience. Personally, I had a great time." It was also nerve racking for some. Freshman Princess Sterling Palmquist said, "I was excited, and nervous at the same time. I could not believe that I got this wonderful award." Beth Delaney was so nervous that she didn't even realize that they said her name. Someone next to her had to nudge her and tell her to sit down. Other people were just happy that they didn't trip over something. Jud Harris was excited just to represent the Junior class. Sophomore, Michael Marceau, couldn't believe that he won. "I was very surprised to have won. Rory Cordial and Mark Heiner are two great guys." Homecoming 1996 was an event that most will never forget.

FOLLOWING THE FOOTSTEPS THROUGH The Still of the Night at Prom 1996

Students line up during Grand March amongst the moon and stars.

Senior Tara Hammond is trying to decide what she will wear to the Prom.

Sentinel's gymnasium was magically transformed into a moonlit walk through a park for the evening of March 16, 1996.

Students entered the lobby and realized they were no longer at Sentinel: They were in the midst of "The Still of the Night."

Senior Tyler Hanson just isn't tall enough to reach the lights, so he gets a little lift. Below him, Mary Widener, Becky Ophus, and Cara Cocchiarella worry that the lights might fall at any second.

To prepare for the 1996 Prom, Junior Prom Committee members raised money by selling suckers, Candy Grams on Valentines Day, and working concession stands at Sentinel games. They held a maid/butler auction, a car wash, and raked leaves in the fall. Money and supplies were donated by various clubs and businesses.

Chair of Prom Committee, Holly Smith felt that the hardest thing in preparing for Prom was "getting a large group of volunteers organized and willing to cooperate with each other. Money was a big worry, but in the end it worked out."

Even though it was a real pain putting up the decorations, it was a lot of fun. I would recommend it to upcoming Juniors," noted Senior Jessica Nobles.

Senior RJ Ochsner believes. "The hardest part of Prom's preparation was organizing a non-alcoholic, post-prom pool bash for over 100 people."

First year Prom Advisor Mrs. Morey remembers, "a very special moment when all three of us advisors- Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. Reimers, and myself- sat on one of the park benches and admired the lovely setting and the students enjoying it. We felt all the hard work was worth it after all. It was definitely a bonding moment."

Freshman Angelia Dunbar, Ryan Moore, and Kristin Erickson take a moment to look for the fun in Fireside.

Junior Tim Foote and his date sophomore Laura Thon from Hellgate look around to see if anyone is watching them practice their new dance moves.

Senior Cory Slocum takes the opportunity to tell sophomore Jenny Johnson a story.

A group of Sentinel students join in the Fireside festivities with a line dance.

Brendan Smith

Senior Brendan Smith's only comment on his school exchange was, anything that is not 40oz's is bloody bunk.

France

Pauline DeLord

Junior Pauline DeLord, was involved in as many activities as possible, so that she could meet a lot of people. She was in many clubs like Key Club, Spanish Club, and French Club.

Thailand

Kanophan TongPong

Senior Kanophan was involved in choir, Key Club, Spanish Club, and French Club. When asked about her exchange she said, "The school is nice, everyone is kind, but it is cold here."

Scotland

Charles Vincent

Senior Charles Vincent, tried to get involved in as much as he could while attending Sentinel. He participated in speech and debate, choir, and many sports. Charles said, "The one major difference is that I can drink alcohol in Scotland."

LEAVING TRACKS IN N.Y.

Thespian's spring trip to the Big Apple

On Wednesday, April 10, 1996, the Thespians kicked off their dream trip: five days of touring the highlights of New York City. While staying at The Edison in New York's Broadway District the aspiring actors and actresses enjoyed shopping, dining and Broadway plays. After a long airplane ride, the group arrived in N.Y. and began their trip by taking a mini tour of the city, followed by a free dinner at an Italian restaurant. Their day was wrapped up by a walk to the Empire State Building.

The next morning the Thespians watched the ice skaters at Rockefeller Plaza and toured NBC Studios, visiting show sets such as 'Saturday Night Live' and 'Late Night With Conan O'Brien'. Following their tour, the Thespians rode the subway to the Metropolitan Museum of Art and then to Central Park for a stroll. They concluded their day with a Broadway show, Showboat. Shopping on the Lower East Side was on the next day's agenda. The Thespians went to F.A.O. Schwartz, Tiffany's and the exquisite Plaza Hotel (seen in Home Alone). After eating at the Hard Rock Cafe, the group visited Saint Patrick's Cathedral and shopped at Macy's eight story department store. To end the day, they attended the play Master Class.

Senior Tara Mickey and graduates Corey Clement and Jeff Wachtel were interviewed on The Today Show, making for a very memorable fourth day.

The Thespian's last full day in New York was one of improv workshops by professional actor Dan Diggles, and two plays: A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum and Shakespeare's Midsummer Night's Dream. Before hopping on a plane back to Missoula, the group visited the American Museum of Natural History as a wrap-up to a great trip. The Thespian's spring trip was a very enlightening experience for Sentinel's young actors and actresses.

Q U O T E S

"The best part of the trip was watching the Broadway plays. They are so professional - nothing I have ever seen, or anything anyone could ever see in Missoula."

- Andres Bentley

"Besides the sore feet and sleeping in a crypt, the whole trip rocked. I got to be on national television, and see some of the best plays ever to grace the modern world, not to mention make some life long friends!"

- Tara Mickey

DECA, which stands for Distributive Education Clubs of America, is a marketing club. Members of this club are responsible for tasks such as running Spartamart, the school store, and running concessions at sporting events. In November Holly Baumgartner, Nicole Rufus, Faith Wagner, and Katie Trkay along with members from Hellgate High School attended the Western Regional Conference in San Diego, California. They went to seminars where they learned how to be successful business leaders. DECA also has a state competition in March where they compete in events such as Hospitality & Tourism, Visual Merchandising, Entrepreneurship, a Quiz Bowl, and even in Modeling. If they are a finalist in an event they qualify to go to Nationals, which will be in Anaheim, CA in 1997.

Leadership High School Missoula

Leadership High School Missoula is an organization for high school juniors. It consists of 40-50 students from schools all over Missoula county. They learn about the community and how to be better leaders in the future. 1996-97 is the third year of LHS for high school students. In it's three years it has been very successful and an enjoyable experience for everyone involved.

Joe Sample looks at his itinerary for the day to see when lunch will be.

"Leadership High School was very informative and taught me a lot about the skills I'll need to be successful. The food was good too."

- Cameron Phillips

"Leadership High School gave me a lot of insight into our community. It made me realize that we need to start thinking about the future now - for ourselves and for society."

- Shannon Weller

"Leadership Missoula High School gave me the opportunity to meet new people. It also helped me understand the good things going on in the community and to understand the problems the community is going to face in the future."

- Joe Sample

"Leadership High School was a wonderful experience. It was an opportunity to meet new people and I learned that I can make a difference, but if we all work together and have leaders we can inspire our world with just a little effort."

- Kylie Smith

"To get others to come into our way of thinking, we must go over to theirs; and it is necessary to follow, in order to lead."

YOUNG LIFE

Student Government

Student Government is a conglomeration of students who are elected by their peers to represent their class in a mock government format. Student Government is responsible for organizing a plethora of school functions, such as the Homecoming Dance, pep assemblies, and the Talent Show. The group is advised by Ms. Barr, and meets every Monday during the lunch hour in room 226. Student Body officers are elected by the freshmen, sophomore, and the junior classes during the spring before the previous' class graduation. Following the student body elections, class elections are held which determine class officers and representatives.

Each meeting, the President or Vice delegates jobs to committee heads. The committee heads are possibly the hardest working people on the entire council, for they organize most of the events outside each meeting. Committee work is not easy, and most of the time it must meet the approval of the full council. Perhaps the backbone of the council are the Student Body and class officers. The officers keep things coming for the rest of the council and keep the President and Vice on their toes. Without a doubt, the group is held together with the guidance of advisor Barr, who for numerous years has shown the council the right way to go.

Student Government is different things to different people. To some, it is a good experience to relate to possible future political careers. It can represent a springboard to the legislature or a deterrent from the low down and dirty ways of campaigning. A few experienced students become wary of the process and come to ask the question of who's really in control. Says senior Amy Cain, Student Body Secretary, "I think that Student Government is just a pawn of the administration." However, most representatives believe a lot can be achieved and that the sky's the limit. Krystal Spring, senior and School Board Representative feels "...student government acts as a spokesperson for the students to the administration and school board. It's a chance for students to express how they really feel and more often than not, their voices are heard."

Two of the more popular and successful events sponsored by the assembly are the Halloween Trick or Treat for Canned Food Drive and the all school Talent Show. The past two years, the food drive has been organized by Katie Ramsey and has raised over two tons of canned goods. Each Halloween, students meet and disperse around Sentinel's district, knocking on doors and "trick or treating" for nonperishable food items. Each spring, this band of leaders sponsors the Talent Show, featuring numerous teachers, duets, and bands. Shoostari, Sentinel's now defunct funk band, swept through and won two years in a row, entertaining the enthusiastic crowd.

Contributed by Tony Hammond, Student Body President

Senior senator Julie Sage and School Board Representative Krystal Spring go all out for the annual Trick or Canning, held by Student Government, in an effort to collect non-perishable food items for the Missoula Poverello Center.

Student Body President Tony Hammond speaks at one of the many pep assemblies Student Government held over the course of the year.

"Four years ago I started as Freshman Class President with a bunch of ideals. Yeah, I thought I could change Sentinel. With Student Government we only managed to dance, get peppy, show off talent, and go to a lot of meetings. I'm not complaining, it's been one heck of a fun time. I'm cooler than Tony!"

"It's a good experience and more people should get into it, it's only one lunch a week."

OFF TO CALIFORNIA

"Three o'clock is always too late or too early for anything you want to do." - Jean-Paul Sartre

"The band trip was an awesome experience," exclaimed Junior Emily Peterson. Most all of the students in the Sentinel Symphonic Band agree with Peterson's statement - the trip was awesome. The 70 band members packed up their instruments and headed to Anaheim, California for a seven day excursion. A few hours out of Salt Lake City, Utah one of the two band busses broke down and the entire band plus a dozen chaperones were forced to board one bus! Because of the bus problems, the band had an extra six hour delay in Utah before heading for Las Vegas, Nevada. After a quick breakfast in the City of Lights, the band set off for sunny California. The group visited nearly all of the tourist attractions in California, including: Disneyland, Sony Studios, Planet Hollywood, the Hard Rock Cafe, Universal Studios, Knott's Berry Farm, and of course, the beach. The band also had the unique experience of performing at Disneyland. Overall, the band trip was an experience that none of them will ever forget.

The Symphonic Band performed at the Carnation Plaza in Disneyland.

"Is it me?", asks Senior Adam Collins while shopping with friends in Disneyland.

Junior Mandy Moffett celebrates her 16th birthday at the Hard Rock Cafe (a big surprise to her).

Graduate Ryan Grinsteiner and seniors Kristie Crowley and Nick Eriksson find their smiles at Chuck A Rama's in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Juniors Emily Peterson and Becky Pederson and Senior Brandi Weber try to get a tan on Tom Sawyer's island in Disneyland.

Senior Jason Thane tries his best to get warm after swimming in the cold Pacific Ocean at the Corona Del Mar Beach in California.

MEMORIES

"My most vivid memory was when Miranda Ming squirted a whole can of Easy Cheese into her mouth."
- Senior Tara Hammond

"I remember being afraid of being busted at the weigh station for having over 70 people on one bus."
- Director Gary Gillett

"What I remember most is wrestling around and acting tough in the swimming pool at the Conestoga Inn."
- Junior Kipper Brockway

"The curdled milk that spilled all over the floor of the bus on the way home."
- Junior Minott Pruyn

"Every morning Julie Sage and I would wake up with what looked like pink hickies on our necks, but we had no idea where we got them. Pretty weird."
- Senior Krystal Spring

"I remember trying to get into the bathroom on the way home and I couldn't because Annie Williamson was sleeping in there."
- Junior Becky Pederson

"Waiting in line for hours to ride Splash Mountain in Disneyland."
- Junior Robin Rennick

"I fell out of a palm tree on to a car and made the car alarm go off, while trying to get a coconut."
- Junior Scott Davis

"My most vivid memory is when one of the Blues Brothers got down on one knee and sang to me at Universal Studios."
- Senior Brandi Weber

"My most vivid memory would most definitely be the comedian at the Married With Children taping at Sony Studios."
- Senior Kyllyn King

ARE YOU A TYPICAL TEEN?

The first thing you do when you get home from school is:

- A. Do your homework.
- B. Call your grandma.
- C. Do your chores.
- D. Get something to eat.

When you have a boyfriend/girlfriend problem you:

- A. sit in the corner and talk to yourself.
- B. go to a teacher.
- C. write a letter to Dear Abby.
- D. talk to your best friend and see what they suggest.

You see your boyfriend/girlfriend cheating on you. Do you:

- A. take it out on everyone.
- B. cry until you stop the drought problem.
- C. see if you can work things out
- D. dump 'em!

There is a huge party, you're invited but your parents won't let you go out. Do you:

- A. stay home and do your homework.
- B. forget the party and clean your room.
- C. take a hot shower and go to bed early.
- D. sneak out.

You like a guy/ girl, but they don't know you are alive. You:

- A. run around the school in your bathing suit and hope they notice.
- B. stalk them.
- C. go to his/her house, selling Avon products.
- D. have one of their friends introduce you to them.

If your best friend is dating the person you like you:

- A. knock out your friend.
- B. spread gossip about your friend.
- C. try to break up the happy couple.
- D. try to be happy for your friend.

How DO YOU

SCORE:

A = 1

B = 2

C = 3

D = 4

20-24

Congratulations! You have qualified to be a typical teenager.

15-19

You haven't exactly got a teenage mind. But don't worry, there's still hope.

9-14

It's hopeless. Give up. Go back to middle school where you belong.

6-8

Sorry to break it to you, but you are the type of person only your parents could love.

Cat Burglar Strikes Sentinel

On Wednesday August 28th, police cars and crime scene tape were the morning welcome for faculty and students at Sentinel. A break-in had occurred between 12:00 a.m. and 6:00 a.m. that morning in which several vending machines and soda machines were damaged or destroyed with the intent of stealing the money inside of them. The school's student-run Spartanart, had also been cleaned out.

Apparently, a person or persons broke through the doors in the wood shop causing extensive damage. The person(s) then proceeded to the welding shop where he/she stole a hammer and chisel which was then used to incur the damage to the machines. The felon also broke into the first and second floor gym concession stands and attempted to enter the main office as well, destroying the metal rolling windows in the process. This was the 3rd instance of a break-in at Sentinel in 16 years.

Baby Kitten Mascots

In early September of 1996 a few new additions to Sentinel's population were discovered. Three grey and white kittens were found in a pile of uniforms in the boys' locker room. The mother cat, Spartacus, evidently crawled into the uniform storage room through a hole in the wall that housed old piping. Spartacus had the kittens there, nestled in a pile of old uniforms. The kittens were said to hopefully bring good luck to the fall athletes.

The Bean Machine

This year, Sentinel was fortunate enough to have its very own coffee cart. This was extremely good news to those Sentinel students and faculty who have a hard time waking up in the morning. The cart serves everything from lattes and mochas to granitas and Italian sodas. The cart is owned by Debbie Weisser and operated by parent volunteers. All profits from the Bean Machine go to school sponsored events to contribute in raising school spirit and togetherness. The Bean Machine has been a great success this year and has been greatly appreciated.

Academic Excellence

Sentinel won the Academic Excellence award for the second consecutive year. The award is based on the average GPA of all students who have lettered in various activities. Those activities include athletics, drama, speech and music.

Student Body President, Tony Hammond, accepted the award during Sentinel's Christmas assembly on December 19th. The award was presented by the High School Associations corporate sponsor, Montana Power Company. The award is a great achievement and Sentinel was very honored to have received the award.

Montana Grizzlies

The University of Montana's football team, the Grizzlies, had a memorable season in 1996. The Grizzlies' colors were changed from copper and gold to the maroon and silver from years ago. Along with the color change, the University of Montana also decided to introduce a different Grizzly logo. These trivial changes were not all that was new in '96. Grizzly Coach Don Read retired in April of '96 and Mick Dennehy was named the new head coach. Another principle change occurred when Starting Quarterback Dave Dickenson, who led the Griz to the National Championship in 1995, graduated. Despite the major changes the Grizzlies played remarkably well. Brian Ah Yat earned the starting quarterback position; the sensational sophomore from Hawaii led the Grizzlies in an undefeated regular season. Like 1995, the Griz won the Big Sky Championship title for 1996. The team then went on to win the three semi-final games held in Missoula, which took them to the 1-AA National Championship game in Hunnington, West Virginia. The scene was the same in 1995 and 1996: the University of Montana Grizzlies vs. the Thundering Herd of Marshall University. The teams faced off with 14-0 seasons on Dec. 21, 1996. The Montana Grizzlies hoped to defend their 1995 1-AA National Championship title, but fell short of the win 49-29. The Grizzlies didn't come home with the trophy; however, they are still champions to their fans. In spite of this loss, the excitement of returning to a second consecutive championship game will be remembered by many for a long time.

Election Memories

The anticipation of the 1996 elections ended on November 5 when voters could cast their ballots. Montana voters were shocked when two weeks before election day, 71-year-old Chet Blaylock, the democratic candidate for governor, suffered an apparent heart attack and died. Blaylock had been driving to Missoula for a debate against his opponent, Republican incumbent Marc Racicot. Judy Jacobson, the democratic candidate for lieutenant governor, was picked to run against Racicot after Blaylock passed away. The well-liked Marc Racicot became re-elected into his second term of governor with 80% of the vote, and Judy Jacobson trailed with a mere 20%. In other election news, Democratic Rep. Pat Williams did not seek re-election after 18 years in the U.S. House of Representatives. Bill Yellowtail was chosen as the new democratic candidate and Rick Hill represented the Republican Party. Hill narrowly defeated Yellowtail winning 52% of the votes compared to Yellowtail's 44%. In the race for U.S. senator, Democrat Max Baucus was re-elected into his fourth term by 54% over Dennis Rehberg's 44%.

Deep Snow Shoveling

Buried automobiles, snow plows, shovels, and snow piles taller than most vehicles were a common sight in Missoula over the snowy Winter Break of 1996. On December 25th Missoulians awoke to a true "White Christmas" with 14.6 inches of new fallen snow. This was the second highest snowfall for a 24-hour period since February 12, 1936 when Missoula was buried under 23 inches. The snow continued to pile up, and it set a record high of 54.1 inches for the month of December. This brought the 1996 seasonal total of winter snowfall to 70.9 inches! As for other local winter happenings, most will recall when part of the roof collapsed at the Lucky Strike Casino. This cave in occurred on December 30, 1996 at 7:28 a.m. and was due to the snow. No one was injured, and about 25 percent of the roof was affected. Five Valley's Bowling Alley and the Lucky Strike Casino were closed until repairs could be made.

Nick
 Really needed my age. Anyway, what can I possibly say on this little amount of space except "You're the coolest!"
 I'll never forget ya and all your wacky, wild sounds and sayings- You're the greatest friend anyone could wish to have I love ya lots! Your friend forever,
 Jenny B. Warner

In our Spare Time

Junior Kelly Owen and senior Matt Benson take time out to flip through some pictures while senior Megan Westover catches up on her ZZZ's.

Through precise and careful movements, senior Eric Bucy manages to get the closest shave possible!

Freshman Paul Copely, and juniors RT Duke, David Wright, and Brad Weikel relax by their lockers during lunch hour.

The best of friends - Seniors Cara Howell and Trena Wright take time out to pose for a quick picture after finding the perfect Christmas tree.

Freshmen

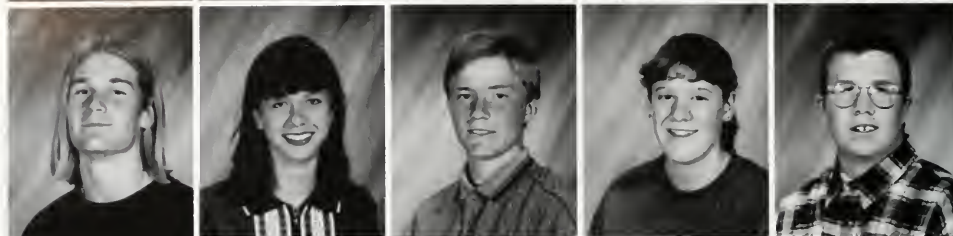

"The freshman bring little knowledge in and the seniors take none out, so it accumulates through the years."

Freshman Molly Moran talks to a friend during halftime of the Homecoming football game.

Be careful where you aim your notes, the rubberband pass-combo can get pretty dangerous.

Tips for the yawn pass: make the yawn as big as possible!

STUDENT GUIDE TO PASSING NOTES

The foot pass- This is a close range pass not intended for passing across the room. Maximum distance three desks. The note is inserted into the inside of the shoe. Slyly cross your leg, for the next desk pass, or scoot your leg to the distance of the destination.

The trash throw- This is a general use, all range pass. The object is to throw the note to the destination when the teacher isn't looking. The reason for crumpling the note is for better distance and just in case you get caught it looks like trash.

Rubber band shot- This note pass involves a rubber band, preferably a thick one. You write your message on the rubber band and then shoot it across the room to its destination. Or you can combine this trick with the trash throw. The advantage to this is you can make sure your pass has a lot of power.

Yawn pass- This pass is for a person that sits right behind you. What you have to do is: fake a yawn, stretch, and drop the note behind you on the desk. If the teacher is looking, their attention will be at your face yawning, not at your hands.

When sending a love note be careful what you write- there is no telling who might read it!

With the foot pass you can send secret love notes.

WARNING: Do not attempt the yawn pass in the presence of Mr. Whaley - he knows the trick!

Sports

"Sports is one area where no participant is worried about another's race, religion, or wealth; and where the only concern is 'Have you come to play?'"

-Henry Roxborough

After stealing the ball from his opponent, junior Joe Sample, passes the ball to another teammate to make the goal.

BOYS' SOCCER

The Boys' Soccer season for 1996 was filled with ups and downs, good times and bad times, and many emotional and unforgettable moments. Somehow, the seniors don't kill the freshmen and the coaches don't kill the seniors. Junior Darren Dean will always remember Coach Ravi DeSilva at the pep assembly. When asked how he thought Sentinel would do at the State Tournament, DeSilva answered, "I'm glad you asked that. We're going to kick butt." The boys team had a winning season and an overall great time.

Juniors Darren Dean and Joe Sample use expert footwork to steal the ball from their opponent.

Junior Seamus Hammond throws a missile down field to resume play.

The team celebrates a win after a long and trying season.

Kickin' it to the limit

Sentinel Girls' Soccer

The Spartan Girls' Soccer team kicked it to the limit in the 1996 season; teamwork was the key. Their season started in August and ended on November 1st at the State Championship game. The team included seven seniors, five juniors, three sophomores and three freshmen. Coach Erik Snyder helped his team do a great job throughout the season.

Seniors Ruth Guthrie and Mary Widener defend the Spartan team together.

Making their mark SPARTAN FOOTBALL

Freshmen Clint Cordial, Casey Spring and Tyler Brewington take down their opponents.

Senior Cole Reich gives Senior Eric Bucy a "high five."

Football always holds the risk of getting injured. Senior Travis Smith is escorted off the field by Coach Arthur and Trainer Jen Crawford.

A little prayer: A group of Varsity Spartan football players take a moment to prepare for the tough game ahead of them.

Freshman Dustin Maier dodges a Hellgate Knight on his way to making another touchdown.

Freshmen

The freshmen football team had a great season! The purple team finished their season with a 4-4 record. Frosh Casey Spring commented, "Overall, the season was pretty good but winning the city championships put the icing on the cake." The white team finished 4-3-1. During the all city jamboree the purple and white teams combined and they took the tournament by storm! Sentinel beat the Big Sky Eagles 20-0, and their next win over the Hellgate Knights 18-6 made them city champs. Way to go freshmen!

Sophomores

When asked about the best part of the '96 season Matt Ventresca commented, "The best part about this team was that we were all friends. We were so close, like a family. If someone got hurt we got mad and started scoring. But we'd come out flat." Luke Rouns recalls, "Right after playing a sophomore game I played a JV game. That was cool! You thought that you were dead tired and then you'd get a second wind, it's a natural high. But after the JV game I'd be absolutely DEAD!"

Hot Tracks

The Sentinel girls' basketball season was full of excitement and frustration. The expectations were not high, but the team far exceeded their initial goals. The girls focused on speed - not height. The Lady Spartans had a .500 regular season beating their cross town rivals, the Hellgate Knights not once, but twice.

During the post season the Spartans came out on fire crushing Big Sky in their first playoff game. Being denied state the past two years, the Spartans were hungry to go back; however, Helena Capital spoiled their chances. The team won the city championship and had a good year despite the playoff loss.

Freshman Brynn Henkel steps behind the three point line to drill a three.

The Varsity and JV teams take a time out to goof around for the camera.

Senior April Albert: "The season went pretty well. Too bad we didn't make it to state-but I have never played with a team who worked as hard as this one. Way to go seniors!"

Junior Megan Moran: "It was a fun season, even if we didn't go to state. All that matters is we beat Hellgate and Big Sky."

Sophomore Amy Widener: "It was a great season with all its ups and downs. I'll never forget the road trips, broccoli, ballet moves and FOULS!"

Freshman Jessica Adams: "I had a lot of fun this year and I hope everyone plays again next year so I can have the experience of playing with these people again. We'll beat Helena High next year!"

Trippin' on the Track

Sentinel's track has been in an unsafe condition for many seasons. It is not only harmful for team practice, but unsafe to host meets. Sections of the track are missing, causing various injuries on the team. Many of last season's team members feel that the condition of the track affected their performance. However, due to the last mill levy, Sentinel received $11,000 to reconstruct the track. According to Coach Miller, the track was supposed to have been finished by the beginning of the 1996 school year. Due to legal problems, the money was frozen in court and unavailable until the end of the summer of '96. Along with the reconstruction of the track, new pits for long jump and shot put will be added.

Senior Devon Case sprints to his team member to hand off the baton in a relay.

"Running for money doesn't make you run fast. It makes you run first."

How the lady Spartans felt about the 1996 softball season:

"I think the season went pretty well. A lot of our players improved over the season, which was great. State was a real bummer but at least we had fun!"

Ashley Keller
Senior

"I think the great leadership helped us to win more games in '96."

Kristy Fleshman
Senior

"We had a really good softball season. There were a lot of cool people on the team and it was a lot of fun. Sunkist Rules!"

Senior Lindsey Babcock returns the ball with her tough forehand during a match against Hellgate.

— What is your most exciting tennis memory? — TENNIS PLAYERS SPEAK OUT

"I think I'll always remember the tennis trip to Helena. Paul Blastic took our screen off in our hotel. When it was time to leave my roommate and I couldn't get it to go back on the window. So we put it under our mattress. I bet it's still there!"

Senior
Meghan Brenna

"I think my favorite memory would have to be watching the upperclassmen on the tennis team get busted and suspended my freshmen year. That was very memorable."

Senior
Jessie Anderson

"I remember when the upperclass girls on the tennis team initiated Tondy. She was the only freshmen on the team. They dressed her up and made her sing to a bunch of guys from Big Sky. Hellgate and Sentinel! It was awesome."

Senior
Dan Auerbach

"We were on an (over night) trip in Helena and had been confined to our rooms for the night. We stayed up watching a really freaky movie. Finally, we all got to sleep and in the middle of the night Amy Peterson woke up screaming at the top of my lungs. I scared everyone in the room so bad we all had to sleep in the same bed."

Senior
Nicole Rufus

COLOPHON

"Leave only footprints, take only memories."

The book was printed by Jostens at its plant in Visalia, California. Sales representatives Steve and Linda Harrington provided valuable assistance and liaison representation to the plant. The staff was also assisted by Jostens's Yearbook Consultant, Phyllis Davidson.

Most photos - except student mugs - were taken by staff photographers and Mrs. Judy Rainey; Journalism I/English teacher, using T-Max film, shot at ASA 400. Most shots were taken in natural light conditions, utilizing strobes only when necessary. Some photos were taken at 3200 ASA. Photographers also printed most black and white photos. Prints were made in the journalism building's darkroom on Kodak Polycontrast black and white paper. Prints were sized, cropped and screened by the Jostens plant.

The staff chiefly used premade templates provided by Jostens Pagesurfer Design Series. The templates were then transferred off the Yeartech CD to the Macintosh and Power Macintosh computers used by the staff. Body copy in all sections -except the senior mugs, consisted of Times in point size 10. Headlines for all pages consisted of Present font. All graphics were provided by the Jostens Clip Art Book or Yeartech Clip Art CD.

The cover was designed by Krystal Spring, Jenny Hall, Nicole Rice, Katie Trkay, Jessica Schoenhard, Loretta Williams, and Josh Sims at Jostens Yearbook Camp in June of 1996.

CREDITS

The original footprints theme idea was developed from a Journalism I student, Lauren Wilson in the spring of 1996. The theme, "Leave only footprints, take only memories," was a slogan brought to the staff by Krystal Spring. The creative and technical ideas of the yearbook were thought of by all staff members.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Valuable assistance was provided by several individuals - with whose help the task was made easier.

1 Hour Photo ~ Thank you for all the assistance in our many photography needs - including, developing, sizing color pictures, and lastly - the senior group shot.

Jostens ~ Thank you for efficient student mug work, and for the fairly quick delivery of all mugs and proofs.

Mr. David Severson ~ Thanks for all the computer help and layout assistance, and pizza parties, among many other things. You're always #1 with the Bitterroot staff!

Mrs. Judy Rainey ~ Thank you for all the help with photos! We couldn't have done it without you!

* I hope you had a good four years of High school, especially the last couple of months. I can't believe you are done. It's so certain but I guess my time will come too. Now you are on to bigger and better things, huh? I know. I enjoyed the last couple of months with you, and I hope there will be many more months until you're home. This has been a pretty good year but I'm glad it's over, and I'm sure you are, too. Yes, to answer your question in high school. But I hope we won't let that sit with us. I think we have a real good thing going here, better than any other relationships I've had before. You are a really great person and I'm really glad we are together. This will be an awesome summer. I can just tell that is if you stay here instead of leaving to CA. I'm really glad your home for me & willing to listen, that's very important to me. You don't know how much that means. Just remember I will be there for you too, no matter what happens, even if we aren't together anymore you will always have someone to talk to. Don't ever forget it. I'll talk to you later. Love ya.
